Text:

To the greater Glory of God. This plaque was erected by the parishioners of Kilmocomogue Union of Parishes on November 11th 2018, the centenary of the end of the First World War. This plaque is dedicated to the cause of peace and in memory of those from this parish and those who are laid to rest in this parish who gave their lives in that conflict.

(Shamrock and poppy badge)

“If we are going to have a shared history and share our traditions and share our peace, we have to share the whole history of the war dead.”

Bertie Ahern (former Taoiseach)

“Heroes who shed their blood and lost their lives! You are now lying in the soil of a friendly country. Therefore rest in peace. There is no difference between the Johnnies and Mehmeets (Turkish soldiers) to us where they lie side by side in this country of ours. You, the mothers who sent their sons from far away countries wipe away your tears; your sons are now lying in our bosom and are in peace. After having lost their lives on this land they have become our sons as well.”

(Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the first President of modern Turkey)
