

Name of memorial: Gort a Ghleanna Memorial.

Inventory No. 1471

Place: Gort a Ghleanna.

Address and map reference: Gort a Ghleanna, Knockanure, Co. Kerry (on the R523 between Listowel and Athea).
Map reference: R 060 337 (Sheet 64).
Co-ordinates: N 52.4478°; W 9.3821°.

Access: at all times, across an open field. Parking: adjacent. Disabled access: not wheelchair accessible.

Position: in a field off the R523. The entrance, with a kissing gate and steps, is clearly marked.

Description and dimensions: Celtic cross, with crucifix and crossed rifles, on a stepped base, in a walled enclosure approached by steps.
Height: appx. 250cms. Width: appx. 100cms.

Recorded by: Edward Bourke 24 June 2022.

Text:

(on the base of the cross)

ARM POBLACHTA NA h-ÉIREANN

I nÓil cuimne

AR

CAP PÁDRUIZ BREACNAIC

CAP PÁDRUIZ DÁLTUIN

CAP DIARMUID Ó LAIGIN

D'ARM NA POBLACHTA

A DÚNMARBUIGEAD LE SAIGDIÚIRÍ

ŠASANA ANNSO

AR AN 12Ú LÁ DE BHEALTAINNE 1921.

SOLUS NA SOILLSE AGUS RAÐARC

NA TRÍONÓIDE D'Á h-ANAMNACA.

R.I.P.

[Irish Republican Army. In loving memory of Cap. Patrick Walsh, Cap. Patrick Dalton and Cap. Jeremiah Lyons of the Irish Republican Army, murdered here by British soldiers on 12th May 1921. Light of lights and sight of the Trinity on their souls.]

ERECTED BY

THE NORTH KERRY REPUBLICAN SOLDIERS MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

1949.

I n ðil cuimne ar

FUAIR Cap. CONCUĀR CAP^T CON DEE, DIED

O'ðAOI bÁS ar an IN CHICAGO, U.S.A.

3^{AD} Eanáir 1967 3RD. JAN 1967

I CHICAGO R. I. P.

(on a separate plaque)

annso ðo seas
cap concuĀr ó ðAOI
a cūg a cosa leis
ón namáið

[Here stood Conor O'Dee who fled from the enemy].