LEST WE FORGET

Erected by public subscription
under the auspices of the Cork
Independent Ex-Servicemen's Club, in memory of their comrades who fell in the Great War fighting for the freedom of small nations.

In 2008 this memorial was restored, new black marble panels with the names engraved being fitted over the old, corroded, inscriptions. These panels can be seen on the website. As well as this, the following inscription was added to the panel on the front (the north side):

1914 – 1918
“Greater Deed Hath No Man Done “They Shall Grow Not Old,
As We That Are Left Grow Old,
Age Shall Not Weary Them,
Nor The Years Condemn.
At The Going Down Of The Sun,
And In The Morning
We Will Remember Them.”

1939 – 1945
“When you go home,
Tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow we gave our today
