

Name of memorial: 1916 Memorial

Inventory No. 310

Place: former Boland's Bakery.

Address and map reference: Grand Canal St., Dublin 2. Map reference O 171 335

Position: On wall at corner of Grand Canal Street and Macken Street.

Description and dimensions: Plaque in green, white and orange marble in a bronze frame. Height appx. 50cms, width appx. 90cms.

Recorded by: Michael Pegum, 13th August, 2006.

Text:

I gcuimhne
na laochra a throid
sa cheantar seo ar son
saoirse na hÉireann
Seachtain na Cásca 1916.
Nochtadh 15th Aibreán 1966
ag
Uachtarán na hÉireann
Eamon de Valera
a raibh a Cheanncheathrú
mar Cheannfort i 1916
sna foirgnimh seo.

1916

(claíomh
solas/
sword of light)

1966

In memory
of the heroes who fought in this area
for the cause of Irish freedom during Easter Week 1916.
Unveiled on 15th April, 1966
by the President of Ireland,
Eamon de Valera
whose Headquarters
as Commandant in 1916
were in these buildings.